H. C. FOLGER, JR., Secretary. This does not mean, so M. F. Elliott, chief counsel for the Standard, pointed out yesterday, that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey will go out of business on December 1. It will keep on as a manufacturer of petroleum products. and its stock will still be bought and sold on the curb.

Besides the stock which the Standard of New Jersey owns in the thirty-three corporations of which it is ordered to nd itself it held shares in many other corporations. What will become of this stock Mr. Elliott did not wish to say. There appears to be nothing in the Supreme Court decree or in that of the lower court, however, which prevents the Standard of New Jersey from continuing to hold this stock, so said Mr.

The scheme outlined in Mr. Folger letter, it was pointed out yesterday, is not to be taken as a reorganization of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. It is a dissolution.

I am not prepared to say," remarked Mr. Elliott, "what is to become of the stocks owned by the Standard Oil Commany in corporations other than those indicated in the decree of the court. But you may believe that the Standard Oil Company is not proposing to go out f business. Indeed there is nothing in the decree of the court which obliges it to do so. Cities and towns to the north and west of Charlotte are facing the water famine that this city is now experiencing. At Greensboro, Salisbury, Concord, Spencer, Monroe, Wadesboro and other places the problem has reached the serious stage and measures of economy are being rigidly enforced.

The situation in Charlotte has not improved. Tank trains brought in to-night from the river at Mount Holly, Gastonia, Shelby and Lincolnton 50,000 gallons of water from each. This is being pumped into the city mains direct by free engines. The greatest menace is the possibility of disease through the continued abandonment of the sewerage system.

States Steel Corporation will examine at the City Hall to-day those civil engineers who made an examination of the holdings of the T.C. & I. and the Republic Iron and Steel Company and will testify about the possibilities of the region and about the possibilities of the region and what they think was the worth of the holdings which the Steel Corporation took over. They are C. P. Perrin, Frederick M. Given and Charles Moore of this city. It was the intention of the committee to call to-day Grant B. Schley of the brokerage firm of Moore & Schley, but at a conference of the committee yesterday afternoon it was decided first to get at the value of the Southern ore and coal fields. Mr. Schley will be called tomorrow.

The Largest Specialty Rug House in America

There is a common misconception that Oriental rugs are too high in price for the average or economical man.

If a purchaser has good taste and $18 in his pocket this house can fill his requirements.

For $100 a carpet size Wild's Oriental may be purchased, for a drawing room or a dining room.

Or when it comes to a $1,000 purchase, full value is supplied.

If your room calls for a rich, dark hued Beloochistan, a crimson Oushak or the brownish reds and creams of a Royal Bokhara—the exactly appropriate rug may be chosen from Wild's Orientals.

It is in having carefully selected designs IN SUFFICIENT VA-RIETY to meet EVERY requisition, at the MOST REASONABLE PRICE that the Wild establishment excels.

Confidence in house from which you purchase Oriental rugs is like the karat mark in a gold ring.

The sifting-out process requires much extra labor, but our rich profit lies in the confidence it gains.

CAPT. HARRIS REMONSTRATES. Doesn't Want Reinstatement but the Ear of Taft-Charges Against thier. Capt. Ira Harris, supervising inspector of the steamboat inspection service, whose resignation has been requested by Secretary Nagel to take effect tomorrow, issued a statement yesterday in which he says that he has appealed to the President "not to be reinstated but calling his attention to the unjust treatment" which he says he has received from the Secretary of Commerce and Labor. Capt. Harris says that two charges have been advanced against him. One was that he had said that the supervisor inspector-general had recommended the division of the Second district for the purpose of forcing his resignation. The other was that in 1908 he wrote to the receiver of the Eastern Steamship Company saying that it was not necessary for the sounding machines on this company's vessels to be kept always ready for use. He says there has never been a regulation to the contrary. On the question of division he says that he thinks he had a right to express an opinion since he was the member of the board most in-Capt. Harris speaks of wiring to Sena-tor Root about the charges and mentions a list of members of the Cabinet, Senators. a list of members of the Cabinet. Senators, members of Congress, an Admiral, a General, members of the big steamship lines and prominent Republicans and Democrats who have written to the President and Secretary Nagel in his interest. He says that the Marine Engineers Association was one of the first to come to his assistance and cites an instance in Philadelphia where a petition was signed by 230 licensed officers in two days. Capt. Harris also repeats the high opinion of his work which was expressed by harbor organizations along the coast.

Harry Hunt Isn't Wanted Here.
Inspector Hughes, head of the Detective Bureau, said last night that he had received from Buffalo a picture and the measurements of Harry Hunt, who was arrested by two up-State specials and held on suspicion of possible connection with the robbery of the jewelry store of Jacoby on the night of July 22, when Adolph Stern, Jacoby's nephew, was killed by men in a taxicab. The inspector had been sent to the Senate.
